

UNITED NATIONS ASSOCIATION TRAVELING FILM FESTIVAL PRESENTATION

Saturday, April 24, 2004

1:00 - 6:30 p.m.

UH-Manoa School of Architecture Auditorium

Free (donations requested)

The United Nations Association-USA, Hawai'i Division and UHM Office of Multicultural Student Services presents three documentaries from the United Nations Association Traveling Film Festival. This event marks the initial presentation by the UNA Traveling Film Festival. In future years, a greater portion of the Traveling Film Festival will be brought to Hawai'i. UH professor Vilsoni Hereniko and Stanford professor Jasmina Bojic will speak.

Empty Oceans, Empty Nets (Indonesia/Italy/Senegal/USA)

An examination of the global fisheries crisis, the immense changes threatening marine fisheries worldwide and the efforts being made to restore and sustain them.

Ralph Bunche: An American Odyssey (USA)

Story of African American scholar and statesman, Ralph Johnson Bunche, who became Under-Secretary General of the UN and a recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize (1950). Discussion with State representative Helene Hale, niece of Ralph Johnson Bunche.

In the Light of Reverence (USA)

An account of the struggles of the Lakota in the Black Hills, the Hopi in Arizona and the Wintu in California to protect their sacred sites from competing interests to use the land for industry and recreation. Discussion with film producer/director, Christopher McLeod.

This event is a presentation of the United Nations Association-USA, Hawai'i Division and the UHM Office of Multicultural Student Services. Co-sponsored by Kad Banoo Event Production, Global Leadership Organization (HPU), Hawaii Intergenerational Network, Department of Economic Development (C&C of Honolulu), www.reviewfilm.com and the UHM United Nations Club.

The UNA-USA, Hawai'i Division will also hold their annual business meeting in the Architecture Auditorium on April 24, 2004, 8:45 a.m. -12:30 p.m. Keynote address is entitled, Peacemaking in the Middle East. All are welcome to attend.

For more information, call OMSS at 956-7348.

uhm OMSS